PLANNED DOUBLE SUICIDE. The woman who was the companion of Henry Grosvenor Barbour when he committed suicide in the St. Charles Hotel, Brooklyn, Thursday night, was found on Saturday in the Seney Hos-She is Helen Southgate, formerly the adopted daughter of Mrs. Southgate, widow of Bishop Southgate of Astoria, L. I.

After much evesion she admitted that she had been with Barbour in the notel and that he had shot her before killing himself. They had planned to die together. She stood before him to meet the shot and he fired, but the bullet shattered the lower end of her breast bone and glanced inward, and, it is thought, downward. Then he turned the weapon on himself and shot himself in the mouth.

The woman said that she had known Barbour since he was 16 years old. He was an infidel, she said, and frequently talked of committing suicide. After being shot she covered up the wound, and, leaving the hotel, took a Court street car to her lodgings, No. 132 Second place, two miles distant. An hour later she came downstairs and lold the landlady that she had accidentally shot herself. A physician was called in and dressed the wound, and then, by is advice, she went to the Seney Hosoital and took a private room, under he name of Helen Parker. Her courage and endurance amaze the physicians, for it is not at all certain that he has not received her death wound.

Rev. Mr. Barbour, the dead man's father, says the girl was born Helen Forbes, but on being adopted by Mrs. Southgate took that name. She was so beautiful that his son's infatuation aid not surprise him.

There was a disagreement in the family, and the adoption was legally nuclied. After that the girl went West, but she returned a week ago Inuraday and went to visit h loster-mother at her home at Good-ground. The girl leit Mrs. Southgate's home last Monday, saying she was going to visit some friends in Brooklyn. The New York Barbours arrived from their Summer home the following day.

Saturday afternoon Miss Southgate made this statement: "Four o'clock Thursday afternoon we went to the St. Cuarles Hotel, While he was getting the pistol ready I opened the waist of my dress, and when he was ready he held the pistol close to me and fired. I did not fall of feel any pair. An instant later I noticed a couple of drops of blood on my corset, and while I was staring at them there was another shot, and I saw Barbour sink to the floor.

"Then I rang the bell for the porter, intending to tell him what had hap pened, but when he came to the door my courage failed, and I asked him what time it was, instead. "Then I dressed myself and went out and got out on a car and went out and got out on a car and went home. When I reached home I told Mrs. Scheil, who is my aunt, that I was tired and wanted to go to bed. By thistime my wound had begun to pain me, and I called my uncle, asking him to send for a physician.

"I told my uncle that I had accidentally shot myself and thrown the

' The physician came and advised me to go to a hospital."
With acid the couple burned out all the laundry marks on their clothing to prevent identification, but forgot to burn a tumber of pawn tickets which Barbour had in his pockets, and these led to the identification and unraveling of the mystery.

Of the antecedents of the girl, Richard K. Southgate, a foster brother, says she was one of the five daughters of a New York druggist, now dead. Her mother remarried and now lives in

ROUSED FROM SLEEP TO DIE .- O. e of the most sensational tragedies in FOR THE PUBLIC & PRIVATE SCHOOLS years was enacted in Rockhill, S. C., Saturday morning, at 2 o'clock. H. A. Brown, an Englishman and an artist. son of the leading artist of the Specia-tor, lives in Rockhill. About 2 o'clock a carriage drove up to his door, and a weil-dressed young man alighted and knocked. E. P. Neill, brother-in-law of Brown responded, and was told by that the visitor that he must see Brown on urgent business immediately.

Neill, leaving the stranger below, went with a light to arouse his brotherin-law. Upon entering the room and awakening Brown he discovered that the stranger had followed him. The Alexandria Fertilizer man rushed to the artist's side, placed a pistol to his body and fired. A second shot shattered Brown's arm.

the pistol being knocked aside by Neill. The stranger then ran down stairs, re-entered the carriage, in which another man was sitting, the driver lashed the horses, and they were gone. Brown lingered a few hours before dying. Three times when asked who shot him, he replied: "Paul M. Bratton."

Bratton is a resident of Yorkville. and was arrested Saturday aftercoon with his driver, David Colwell. The latter says he drove Bratton through the country twenty-one miles to Rockhill and return. The identy of the second man in the carriage is unknown. Brown was in Yorkville Friday and had not words with a younger brother of Paul Bration. The Bration family is one of the oldest in the State, and in war and peace beld the highest positions. Paul Bratton is a son-in-law of Col. Ashbury Caward, superintendent of the South Carolina Military Academy.

SAPHO OUTDONE IN PARIS .- A commotion not unlike the Sapho excitement in New York is convulsing Paris over the performance of a band of female wrestlers at the Exposition in one of the many theatres which had failed and closed. DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but ellays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle, Recom-mended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hell, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by all druggists.
